Crewdson Road, Oval, London, SW9

Occupying the ground floor of an attractive bay-fronted Victorian property, this well-presented home combines period character with practical modern living and particularly appealing outside space.

The welcoming reception room features a large bay window with plantation shutters, exposed wooden floorboards, decorative ceiling detailing, a feature fireplace and fitted alcove shelving, creating a warm and inviting living space.

The principal bedroom enjoys an outlook towards the garden and benefits from fitted storage, whilst the second bedroom offers flexibility as a guest bedroom, nursery or dedicated home office.
